

The Athens County Board of Developmental Disabilities reaches out to Athens County resources and community partners that interface with citizens with developmental disabilities in an effort to help you better understand our efforts, and services as we work towards our mission of true inclusion for people with disabilities.

A sack lunch provided free to all attendees

Date: May 16th

Time: 11am -1pm

Athens Community Center
Rooms A & B

Please RSVP By May 5th

Please let us know if you need a vegetarian sack lunch

Email: bdeem@athenscbdd.org

(740)592-6659 x 212

Opening Performance by the Athens Community Choir

Learn about Athens becoming a more inclusive community

Sylvia Fields, 2016 PersonnelPlus Employee of the Year, PersonnelPlus Advocacy Council Representative, and Self Advocate struggles faced being a person with a disability.

Autumn Brown will be sharing what the Atco Transition means and introducing you to our new service model and working toward a more inclusive community.

Doug Mitchell, Director of the New Employment Options Division shares about the successes of Athens County Community Employment efforts.

Introduction to our Friends, Allies, and Neighbors initiative to connect our community by David McNelly, SSA